

Blagdon Cricket Club is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the well-being of all its members. The club believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators, and parents associated with the club should, always show respect, be open and share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club.

Anyone wishing to discuss any of these concerns should speak to Mike Leveratt or any member of the Committee.

As a member of the Blagdon Cricket Club, you are expected to abide by the following Code of Conduct:

The Code of Conduct

A player will, without exception, and at all times, for the duration of coaching sessions, matches, tours and tournaments:

- Respect and comply with all decisions and directives of the Blagdon Cricket Club Management Committee
- Respect and comply with the principles of the “Spirit of Cricket” as outlined in the Preamble to the Laws of Cricket.
- Conduct themselves in a fitting manner
- Players under 18 years of age are prohibited from drinking alcohol.
- Respect and comply with the terms of the directive which bans, without reservation, the use of un-prescribed drugs and other controlled substances
- Respect the property and belongings of others and maintain their accommodation, dressing room and practice facilities in a clean and tidy state.
- Respect and comply with the terms of Blagdon Cricket Club’s Disciplinary Code